1. Germany is the world’s largest exporter and home to many international corporations.
2. German is the most commonly spoken language in the EU.
3. German is the second-most commonly used scientific language.
4. Many graduate schools specify German as a prerequisite for a Ph.D. German will help you in fields such as art history, engineering, chemistry, physics, biology, theology, philosophy, political science, archaeology, music, and more.
5. To celebrate your heritage: one in four Americans is of German descent.

ENROLL NOW IN A GERMAN COURSE