

Language and Culture:

Die moderne Gesellschaft in Deutschland

GERM 302 with Dr. Tin Wegel or Dr. Priscilla Layne
Spring 2017

Prerequisite: GERM 204 or permission of instructor

German 302 is an advanced language and culture course aimed at familiarizing you with the political, cultural, and societal issues of contemporary Germany. We will read an array of non-fictional texts that students at the advanced Gymnasium level are reading. We will also engage with fictional texts, music, and the news, as well as watch several short films and full-length movies that lend us a critical view of Germany in the 21st century. German 302 also provides you with opportunities to strengthen your written German and to solidify your speaking skills in a communicative and culturally meaningful context.

All readings and discussions in German.

Approach: Social/Behavioral Sciences (SS)

Connections: Communication Intensive (CI), North Atlantic World (NA)
