

GERM 502

MIDDLE HIGH GERMAN

This course teaches the basic elements of the Middle High German language and exposes students to a variety of textual genres from the high Middle Ages such as courtly romance, heroic epic, love lyric, and religious literature.

The focus is on language and translation, but the close textual work also provides an introduction to medieval literature and culture.

DR ALEKSANDRA PRICA

MONDAY / WEDNESDAY 3:10 - 4:25 PM

SPRING 2017

Readings in English, German, and
Middle High German;
Class will be conducted in German.

