

RUSS 455: 20TH-CENTURY RUSSIAN LITERATURE AND CULTURE

As Russia became a laboratory for sociopolitical experiments of global significance, its culture reflected on the most spectacular of its aspirations and failures. This course surveys 20th-century literary, musical and cinematic artifacts that emerged to affect the world profoundly. Taught in English; some readings in Russian for qualified students.

Dr. Stanislav Shvabrin Spring 2018 TTH 11:00 AM - 12:15 PM Literary Arts; Beyond the North Atlantic