- One additional course (3 credit hours) beyond GERM 206

GERM courses numbered above 399 may count toward the minor with the approval of the Director of Undergraduate Studies, who will note whether the course is taught in English or in German.

GSSL courses numbered above 200 may count toward the minor with the approval of the Director of Undergraduate Studies.

Three German LAC* credit hours may be used as a substitute for one three-hour course taught in German for the minor. (*Languages across the Curriculum)

Students must establish credit for GERM 204 (or GERM 206) as a prerequisite for a German minor.

Students who desire to pursue a minor in German should have a grade of B or better in GERM 203 and 204 (or in 206).

At least nine credit hours beyond GERM 206 must be taken at UNC–Chapel Hill to fulfill the requirements of the minor. Minors who study abroad or wish to transfer credit from another institution may apply to transfer one course counting toward the minor. GSSL courses numbered above 200 may count toward the minor with the approval of the Director of Undergraduate Studies.

Students may not re-enroll in a course for which they have received PL or BE credit without permission of the Language Program Director.

At least nine credit hours beyond the first two semesters of the language must be taken at UNC–Chapel Hill to fulfill the requirements of the minor. Students who study abroad or wish to transfer credit from another institution may apply to transfer one course counting toward the minor. Before their departure for a study abroad program, students should consult the relevant Director of Undergraduate Studies about appropriate courses taken abroad for the minor.
